Fair Ambassador Dress Code

Wearing the Fair Ambassador crown and/or sash is to be considered an honor and privilege. The bearer is now an ambassador representing themselves, their family, their community and Fair. Put the effort into making a good impression!

Therefore responsible, appropriate, and professional appearance is expected while the Fair Ambassador or court members are wearing their crown and sash.

- Clothing should be comfortable to be outside and move around the fairgrounds.
- No short shorts.
- No clothing that advertises, promotes, or glorifies the use of alcohol, tobacco, drugs, or anything inconsistent with the dignity of the Anne Arundel County Fair.
- No flip flops. This is a safety precaution as participants may be asked to assist with handing out awards during livestock shows.
